

EDUCATION

West Meck senior wins Hood Hargett Breakfast Club scholarship

CHARLOTTE – West Mecklenburg High School senior Harrison Brown is the winner of this month's Hood Hargett Breakfast Club's student athlete scholarship.

The breakfast club awards a $1,000 scholarship to a Charlotte-area senior each month during the school year.

Brown has a weighted grade point average of 4.67, and he is ranked second in a class of 305 students. As a swimmer, he was named rookie of the year his freshman year, most valuable swimmer for two years, and all-conference swimmer for the Queen City Conference for two years. He was also named swimmer of the year by Mountain Island Weekly as a junior.

His is the first Hood Hargett scholarship awarded in the 2010-11 school year. At the end of the year, one of the monthly winners will be selected as the Student Athlete of the Year and receive an additional $5,000 scholarship.

Fall Homeschool Day at Latta Plantation

HUNTERSVILLE – The Latta Plantation staff hosts a living history day specifically for homeschoolers and their families Sept. 29 from 10 a.m. to 4 p.m. The staff brings history lessons to life, as students get a chance to meet colonial soldiers and learn about the American Revolution. Students will make tri-cornered hats and paper flags. Additional activities include touring the circa-1800

Courtesy of Mike Reed

West Mecklenburg High School senior Harrison Brown is the first winner of the Hood Hargett scholarship for the 2010-11 school year.

Latta home and outbuildings and visiting the animal and honeybee exhibits. Admission is $5 per person and visitors age 4 and younger are admitted free.

Latta Plantation is located at 5225 Sample Road, Huntersville. For more information, visit www.lattaplantation.org.

Big Shots Saturdays encourage immunizations

CHARLOTTE – The Junior League of Charlotte, Inc. and Charlotte-Mecklenburg Schools are partnering to sponsor Big Shots Saturdays this month. Big Shots Saturdays is a free event that provides immunizations to children. The final Saturday also will feature Kids HealthLink, a festival open to the public and offering free vision, hearing and dental assessments, education topics for children, entertainment and giveaways. The events will take place on the following dates:

- Sept. 11, 10 a.m. to 2 p.m., Mecklenburg County Health Department, 249 Billingsly Road SE.
- Sept. 18, 10 a.m. to 2 p.m., Mecklenburg County Health Department, 2845 Beatties Ford Road.
- Sept. 25, 10 a.m. to 2 p.m., Merry Oaks Elementary, 3508 Draper Ave.

Spanish language interpreters will be available. Parents and guardians must bring official immunization records and at least one form of identification.

(See School notes on page 24)